

Scopus

Join us to learn more about the largest abstract and citation database of peer-reviewed literature! Find abstracts and references from over 19,000 titles from 5,000 publishers worldwide – ensuring broad interdisciplinary coverage.

Date: Wednesday, January 23rd
Location: Terrell Library, Room 20E (ground floor)
Time: 12:00-1:30pm

Scopus (1 hr)

- Check out what's hot in a research area by finding the most highly cited articles and authors
- Stay up-to-date by setting up search and citation alerts using RSS feeds
- Support grant and tenure applications by tracking citations to articles by year
- Find out how Scopus can help in your search and discovery and learn how to analyze, refine and export your search results
- Compare and rank journals using the Scopus Journal Analyzer & metrics
- Learn how to make changes to researcher profiles in Scopus

Elsevier Resources (5 min)

- Take a quick tour of Elsevier's TrainingDesk and find out why BiggerBrains.com and our Info site are such valuable resources

---

For information please contact:

Joel Cummings

Head of Collection Development and

Science Librarian and Collection Manager for Agriculture, Engineering and the Sciences.

Owen Science & Engineering Library 139

Washington State University

E-mail: jcumings@wsu.edu

<http://www.info.sciverse.com/scopus>

